It's Summertime Welcome to Summer! This week we will get to know our counselors and friends with different activities that lead us into forever friendships.

Express Yourself This week will be a look into our artistic side. We will be colorful with painting and crafts plus learning to use team work to create masterpieces.

STEAM Week Science, Technology, Engineering, Art and Math. Well, maybe not math class but we will be learning to explore the unknown, build, create and be wowed with our experiments, creations and potential.

Animal Week Explore the world of our furry animal friends. Dogs, cats, and goats...oh my! With a range of different activities, we will have the animals come to us! This special week You may even encounter some prehistoric animal fun! Plus, don't forget...Friday is National Ice Cream Day!

Champions Week Activities will central around sports and competitions plus an inflatable obstacle course. Not into sports? Don't worry, we will have many different competitions for everyone to enjoy! Be on the lookout... Kazoo from the Blue Wahoo's might be coming to play!

Red, White and Sea It's Independence week... No camp on July 4th. To make this short week a blast we will load each day with activities that support our Red, white and blue along with learning about our beaches, gulf and the eco system that it encompasses.

Christmas in July It's Christmas...in July! Bring the joy of the holidays to the summer. We will have tree decorating, gingerbread house competitions, fudge pops and movie time... If the belief is strong, maybe Santa in beachwear will show up!

Gamer's Unite Gamer's week we will have the Game truck plus have laser tag, nerf wars, capture the flag and tons of board games plus activities that incorporate gaming new and old.

Island Week We will bring the islander out of the kids! A walk to Shoreline beach, fishing, beach volleyball, learning to make lei's, shaved ice and so much more. Get ready to Luau on Friday and if you pay close attention, we may even get a chance to learn about the majestic sea turtles that call our beautiful gulf their home!

Showdown at Camp Yeehaw! It's a western style week at camp! Lots of fun western activities plus a western petting zoo. We will have a barn bounce, fishing, line dancing and smores!

Week of Mayhem It's the last week of summer and we will be going out with a week of our favorite activities plus each day will bring unknown laughter! Over the summer, the campers have chosen their favorite activity from each week and we will revisit them with flare! Friday being the last Friday before school starts, we will send off summer with an awesome party!
